IS NOW TOO LATE

The Ordinance to Abolish the Marshal's Salary is Doomed.

THE TIME IS TOO SHORT

The Gang is Afraid That it Will Lose Many Votes By the Passage of the Ordinance.

SOME OF THE INSIDE WORKINGS

Some of the city councilmen are red-hot because the ordinance ordered drawn for the purpose of doing away with the salary of city marshal, and making the remuneration of the office only the perquisites, which amount to about $2,000 a year, cannot now be passed. It was understood at the last meeting by those in favor of it that a called meeting of the council was to be held for the purpose of giving first passage to the ordinance, and the second passage to be given at the regular meeting next Monday night.

No meeting was called, and as a result there is time to give the ordinance but one passage before the election, and as the salary for an office cannot be changed during the term for which an incumbent is elected, the ordinance is practically dead, if it is ever presented at all, and the people will now have this office to support for another four years.

It is understood that the principal reason the ordinance was killed, and the office of city marshal was not abolished, which it should have been, was because the Yeiser crowd, among whom are the city hall gang, were afraid if they cut off any part of the salary, or abolished the office, it would offend the friends of the Democratic nominee for the position, and he would throw his strength to defeating the Democratic Tuesday. They know that there will be no use for the position after Paducah enters the second class in a few months, and that it ought for the sake of economy, and because it will be unnecessary then, to be abolished, but in order to corral the votes for the gang, they have conspired to force this office on the taxpayers.

It is certain that a strong effort will be made to defeat the ordinance introduced to make the offices of look-up keeper, license inspector, market master, chain-gang overseer, and street inspector elective instead of appointive. The city hall clique wants these offices to remain in control of the mayor, and as the present holders are in with the gang, and are afraid to risk their candidacies before the next council, having a cinch on the places if Yeiser is elected, every effort will be made to defeat the ordinance, which if given second passage will be vetoed by the mayor, and then require eight votes to carry.

IMPUDENT NEGRO.

AARON FRANKLIN GIVEN A SEVERE THRESHING AND SHOT AT.

Fulton, Nov. 2.—Aaron Franklin, an impudent negro, who runs a transfer wagon, was given a severe beating last night by baggage man Tom Davidson.

Franklin was knocked down three or four times with a club and as he made his exit he was shot at one time, but the bullet failed to take effect. The trouble came up in the baggage room at the Illinois Central depot over some baggage. The negro, who is impudent and sassy, cursed and abused the popular baggage man who struck him with a club. The negro advanced on Davidson when the latter drew a revolver and fired. All who witnessed the affray say Davidson was justifiable.

AUTO HERE.

DR. J. D. ROBERTSON MADE A TRIAL TRIP IN IT TODAY.

Dr. J. D. Robertson has received his new automobile and this afternoon had it out on the streets. It is of medium size and has a regular buggy top for the bad weather season. The trial trip was made this afternoon about 1 o'clock and the horseless car was worked admirably. Dr. Robertson will use it in his practice and it is the first automobile to be used in this end of the state for such a purpose and it is also the first machine of its kind to be owned by a Paducah man.

WAS REMEMBERED.

MAYFIELD BOY RECEIVES $500 FROM A NEW YORK MILLIONAIRE.

Mayfield, Ky., Nov. 2.—In September, 1896, a boy baby was born to T. L. Stovall, who was then a resident of Upper Kentucky, and the child was named Charles Broadway Rouse, for the blind millionaire New York merchant. Mr. Rouse was informed of his new namesake, and a letter came back stating that when the child was five years old, if it would write him a letter, he would send it a present. His mother forgot to have the child write when he reached his fifth birthday, but a month afterward thought of the matter and had the little fellow scratch off a letter to the great merchant. Yesterday a letter came with a check in it for $500 for the use and benefit of the child.

LIBRARY MEETING.

THE COMMITTEE WAITING FOR THE COUNCIL TO ACT.

There was a good attendance at the public library meeting held last night at the Palmer house, and Rev. G. W. Perryman presided.

There are various sites under consideration, but none of them has been given any preference thus far. The committee have in mind one site not heretofore mentioned, at Fifth and Jefferson, where Tate's grocery now is, and the Dean property adjoining. This is in a central location and may be bought cheap.

The council Monday night will be asked to increase its pledge of $2500 a year for the maintenance of the library to $3500, and will doubtless accede to the desire of the many citizens who will sign the petition. After the council acts, the committee will then take immediate steps looking to a purchase of the site.

Mr. George Hughes' option, given the committee, is on the entire vacant property at Ninth and Broadway, bounded by the Episcopal church, Ninth street, Broadway and Court street, for $10,000 or the half of it fronting Broadway for $7,000.

IMPERSONATED A MAN.

A WOMAN IN MALE ATTIRE GOT OFF AT MAYFIELD.

A peculiar incident was reported to Officer Frank Harlan last evening. On the early morning train yesterday about 4 o'clock from Louisville was a woman dressed in man's clothes.

She got on at Princeton, and had a ticket for Mayfield. The porter discovered by talking to her, that she was not a man and could not successfully disguise her voice. She seemed ill at ease, and as no one was aboard who had any authority to arrest her, she was allowed to get off the train without being molested or questioned as to her motives in impersonating a man.

ONLY ONE SLIGHTLY HURT

A New Night Baggage Master at the Union Depot—Other Changes Rumored.

NEW TIME CARD TOMORROW.

Several colored employees of the I. C. shop yards narrowly escaped serious injury yesterday afternoon while attempting to clean out an old turpentine tank that had been taken from the burned color store room. The tank is made of iron and had been filled with turpentine which supposedly had been consumed in the fire. One of the men rolled it out into the yard and without first washing and scouring the vessel dropped a hot coal of fire into the bung hole. There was a terrific explosion and a piece of the tank broke off and struck a colored man in the head inflicting slight injuries only. It seems that there had been some turpentine left in the bottom of the tank and but for the small bung hole the explosion would doubtless have resulted seriously.

Mr. H. A. La Rue, Jr., has been appointed night baggage master at the Illinois Central passenger depot to succeed Mr. B. B. Misenheimer. The change was effective last night. Other changes are rumored but as yet they have not been officially announced.

The new time card for the Louisville division arrived in the city last night and there are no changes in the passenger trains in and out of Paducah. The only change in the passenger service on the Louisville division is at Central City, where the early morning accommodation train, laid over, on Sunday only, for three hours. After tomorrow, when the time card goes into effect, this will be done away with and the train will arrive and depart at that place on the regular daily schedule. The freight trains are effected by the new time card but the local Southern freight will continue to run on the regular time.

The Illinois Central ambulance sent to the depot for a patient, collided with a wood wagon near the I. C. depot this morning but no one was injured. The ambulance suffered slight damages.

Mr. John Danaher, of the day yard-master's force, was called home yesterday afternoon by the illness of his mother, Mrs. M. Danaher. Her condition is the same today and he is still off duty. Mr. Chas. Sugars, the chief clerk, is filling his place today.

The employees at the store house are busy today arranging the outside material and cleaning up about the building. This is the only place on the local system that had not been overhauled and cleaned and today it will compare with any other store house on the entire system. The inspection train is expected in the city today or tomorrow but no definite date has yet been fixed. The train has been touring the northern towns.

There was no lay-off at the shops yesterday contrary to a rumor about to that effect. The work in the shops is rapidly being discharged and there are several stalls in the machine shops empty at present. When the work is all out then the lay-off may be ordered as is the usual custom.

Mr. A. D. Hathaway, the clerk and stenographer in the office of Master Car Builder Sessions, will leave tonight for Louisville on a brief visit to relatives, returning Monday.

Conductor Conway was stopped by the city after a business visit in Fulton.

SMITHLAND, KY., NOV. 2.—THE store house and stock of goods of W. A. Doon were destroyed by fire Thursday night at Mint spring. The clerk in the store waited on customers as late as 9 o'clock that night and when he left there was no fire about the house. About 11 o'clock the building was discovered enveloped in flames. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. The store house was a new one and had only been occupied a few days. There was no insurance. So there is no clue to the identity of the fire-bug.

Last Saturday night the store house and stock of goods of Mr. Joe Hill were destroyed in the same manner at Green's Ferry on the Cumberland river, a few miles from Mint spring. In this case the store house was a new one and the owner had occupied it only a few days. A short time before the two fires mentioned the tobacco barn of James Rhine, who resides in the same locality in this county, was destroyed by fire. The belief is prevalent in that section that there is a fire-bug operating in the neighborhood and that he is responsible for all three of the destructive blazes. An investigation is being conducted quietly and arrests may soon be the result.

BRIEF NOTES FROM SMITHLAND

Smithland, Ky., Nov. 2.—The store house and stock of goods of W. A. Doon were destroyed by fire Thursday night at Mint spring. The clerk in the store waited on customers as late as 9 o'clock that night and when he left there was no fire about the house. About 11 o'clock the building was discovered enveloped in flames. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. The store house was a new one and had only been occupied a few days. There was no insurance. In this case the store house was a new one and the owner had occupied it only a few days. A short time before the two fires mentioned the tobacco barn of James Rhine, who resides in the same locality in this county, was destroyed by fire. The belief is prevalent in that section that there is a fire-bug operating in the neighborhood and that he is responsible for all three of the destructive blazes. An investigation is being conducted quietly and arrests may soon be the result.

James Greenlee, a young man of the county, died in the Sugar creek section this week of blood poisoning. His foot was injured some time ago and it developed into blood poisoning. When told the only hope to save him would be to amputate his leg he said: "My father is too poor to stand the expense and rather than be a beggar even if it would save my life, I'd rather not have it amputated."

The son of Mr. Peyton Wells, a well to do farmer of the Mint spring section of the county, is critically ill of blood poisoning. His leg was amputated Sunday in the hope of saving his life. Last summer while plowing his heel was injured by his shop. This makes the third time his leg has been operated on.

The directors of the Livingston county bank are contemplating the erection of a more commodious and costly bank building than the one now occupied by that institution. The business venture has proven a success far beyond the expectations of its stockholders. Nothing only preliminary steps toward its erection will, however, be done until after the meeting of the stockholders next January.

The chute, at the head of Bush's Island, is no longer navigable owing to low water. The Evansville packets go down the Ohio on the Illinois side and come up around the island.

Captain James Owens, of Paducah, and Mr. Jones, of Cleveland, Ohio, were in town Thursday. They had been to the former's property on the Cumberland river. Mr. Jones is thinking of purchasing Captain Owens' silver and lead mines on the Cumberland river. The mine was sold several years ago by Smithland capitalists for $10,000 cash and for some reason has never since been worked. Mr. Jones expressed himself to The Sun correspondent as being well pleased with what he had seen of the property.

The "band wagon" and county Democratic nominee with Marion Pogue, of Crittenden, nominee for representative, accompanied by Commonwealth Attorney John Grayot, John Hendrick, Ollie James and State School Supt. ## 54 KILLED AND 160 WOUNDED.

London, Nov. 2.—Lord Kitchener has reported to the war office a disaster to the British near Bethel, Eastern Transvaal, in which two guns were lost, several officers killed or wounded and 54 men were killed and 160 wounded.

The following is the text of Lord Kitchener's dispatch, dated Pretoria, November 1:

"I have just heard of a severe attack made on the rear guard of Col. Benson's column, when about twenty miles northwest of Bethel, near Brokensburg, during a thick mist.

"The strength of the enemy is reported to have been a thousand. They rushed two guns with the rear guard, but it is uncertain whether they were able to remove them.

"I fear our casualties were heavy. Col. Benson was wounded, but not severely. A relieving column will reach him this morning."

Later Lord Kitchener telegraphed as follows: "Col. Barker, who marched from the constabulary line yesterday, reached Benson's column early this Friday, unopposed. He reports that Col. Benson died of his wounds."

"The other casualties are as follows: "Killed—Col. E. Guinness, Maj. F. D. Murray, Capt. M. W. Lindsay and F. T. Thornhill, Lieuts. E. V. L. Brooks and R. E. Shepherd and Second Lieut. A. J. Corlett. Died of wounds, Captain Eyre Lloyd."

Lord Kitchener then gives the names of thirteen other officers who were wounded, most of them severely, and announces that fifty-four non-commissioned officers and men were killed and 160 wounded, adding that four of the latter have since died of their wounds.

A MAIDEN ON TIME.

Men claim that women are tardy—in fact, that they're never on time. That among their thousand sweet virtues promptness you never will find. But I know of a dear little woman, quite worthy of praise in rhyme. Who is pretty and gracious and charming, and always, yes, always, on time.

She never is fretful and hurried, nor given to dumps nor to tears; She's a beautiful Grecian maiden who has posed on my clock for years!

—Ladies' Home Journal.

A WORK FOR THE #### WOMAN'S CLUBS.

Let the Woman's Clubs of the city take up the free library project and work for it with all the zeal that they are so capable of showing. Who so fitted to appreciate and realize the advantages of such a gift to Paducah as her women of culture? And who will be more helped by it? Anyone who has had to struggle to prepare a paper on some abstruse subject without needed books of reference, can especially realize the advantage of having all such at hand for consultation. Then through the broadening and enlightening influence of culture, they can realize what the benefit will be to those in our city who long for books and yet can not get them. Here it is they can meet the finest, most elevating company, all without money and without price. It will be a Home Mission work unlimited in extent and influence.

What can you do? What can not charming, cultured womanhood do? By her beauty, her wit, her tact, she can influence and move the world. There is nothing she can not accomplish. There are divers ways of working—"many men of many minds," you know, and all cannot be wrought upon alike. With some, gentle means alone can avail; with others, something more forcible is necessary. If you have within your house a "man, wise in his own conceit," who can not be persuaded by gentleness, try making it so stirring for him at home that he will eagerly advocate the library as a place of refuge and quiet. There are various ways of accomplishing your aims. All must work together, for this opportunity must not be let to pass us by.

"What is this name, O Statue?"
"I am called 'Opportunity.'"
"Why art thou standing on thy toes?"

"To show that I stay but a moment."
"Why hast wings on thy feet?"

"To show how quickly I pass by."

"But why is thy hair so long on thy forehead?"

"That thou may see me when they meet me."

"Why, then, is thy head so bald behind?"

"To show that when I have once passed I cannot be caught."

A BEAUTIFUL AFTER.

NOON RECEPTION.

A most beautiful reception was that given on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. C. E. Whitesides in honor of her guests, Mrs. A. D. Whitesides and Mrs. H. B. Essex of Indianapolis, and of Mrs. J. V. Voris, of the city. From three to five some 150 guests called and it was one of the most delightful functions in Paducah's list of notable social occasions.

The attractive Whitesides' home on North Sixth street looked most artistic and the decorations were as effective as possible and emphasized the season. The reception hall and parlor were banked in palms and flowers, golden chrysanthemums being most in evidence, here were stationed Mrs. Whitesides and the guests of honor.

Mrs. C. E. Whitesides wore a becoming gown of white organdy over lilac tulle; Mrs. A. D. Whitesides, of Indianapolis, a grey reception gown trimmed in black and velvet; Mrs. Essex, an all black net costume over tulle, with blue egrettes in pompadour; Mrs. Victor Voris in an effective Parisian gown of cream renaissance lace over yellow satin. Mrs. Whitesides was assisted in receiving by Mrs. W. E. Cave and Mrs. Charles Kiger. Mrs. Cave wore a handsome black jetted costume, and Mrs. Kiger a cream liberty satin covered in spangled tulle.

The dining room was something so artistic and unusual that it received most enthusiastic praise. The decorations were the brilliant autumn leaves, the walls being entirely covered with them, sprays of red berries and glowing vines and branches banded the mantel. It was as if the glory of the woods had come into the room. The table was ornamented with bride roses on a large mirror, and from the chandelier ribbons in the four autumn colors came in festoons to the corners of the table. Here Mrs. Wynne Tully and Mrs. James Clements attractively groomed in white presided at the table, where the ice and chocolate, which also emphasized the autumn color-scheme, were served; bon-bons in orange, brown, crimson and green were in dainty dishes on the sideboard which was set with candles in shaded globes. Miss Elizabeth Sinnott in a charming creation of pink swiss trimmed in black lace and Miss Mary K. Sowell in a pretty gown of pink silk most assisted in serving in the dining room.

In an oriental nook most artistic with cushions galore, palms and flowers, under a charming Egyptian lamp Miss Carrie Riecke gowned in blue silk and white lace served the punch. An orchestra made delightful music during the afternoon and added to the pleasure of those who called. The guests of honor, Mrs. A. D. Whitesides, Mrs. Essex and Mrs. Voris made a most pleasant impression on every one, and Mrs. Whitesides' reputation as a hostess was added to by this charming afternoon.

THE STEYER-BOYD WEDDING.

The marriage of Dr. Frank Boyd of the city, to Miss Flora Steyer of Golconda, Ill., on Wednesday evening at Golconda was a most brilliant affair, and an occasion of no little interest to society both in Paducah and Golconda. The ceremony was at the Presbyterian church and was very beautiful and elaborate. Miss Myrtle Roper, of Golconda, was maid of honor, and Miss Bessie of Chicago, was bridesmaid. Dr. W. L. Hansboro, of the city, was best man, and Mr. Charles Boyd was groomsmen. The ushers were Messrs. A. S. Thompson and Abram L. Well of Paducah, and Dr. Crisp and Mr. Otto Thompson of Golconda.

The bride wore an elegant bridal gown of white crepe de chene trimmed with handsome lace, with veil and carried a beautiful bridal bouquet. The maid of honor and bridesmaids were attractively gowned in pink.

A brilliant wedding reception at the handsome Steyer home, followed the ceremony, at which there were over 300 guests present.

Dr. and Mrs. Boyd went on a bridal trip to the City of Mexico and will be at home at the Palmer house here after December 1.

Among the Paducahans who attended the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hill, Mrs. W. B. McPherson, Mrs. Lee Crumbaugh, Miss Laura Sand, Dr. W. L. Hansboro, Mr. Charles Boyd, Mr. Abram Well and Mr. A. S. Thompson.

MAGAZINE CLUB MEETING.

The Magazine club was entertained by Mrs. William F. Bradshaw on Thursday afternoon and was a most pleasant occasion. Owing to the absence of several who were on the program the reports were not as full as usual, and more time was thus allowed for a discussion of the topics, which made it an especially interesting meeting.

Mrs. Richard Baker gave an entertaining account of "The Arctic Expedition," Mrs. Samuel T. Hubbard reported on two topics of special interest, "The Death of President McKinley," and "President Roosevelt's entertainment of Booker Washington." Mrs. B. E. Reed told of "Napoleon at St. Helena" in a most delightful way.

The rules of the club were read and it was agreed that they would be more strictly adhered to. Mrs. Irvin S. Cobb was elected a member of the club. There were several visitors present besides the members.

SOME OTHER OCCASIONS.

The week has had various pleasant occasions to distinguish it beside the social affairs given in detail. The reception at the Ogilvie building on Tuesday was made a gala occasion, and at night assumed quite the aspect of a function, with dancing on the second floor. The magnificent building with its beautiful decorations was admired by thousands.

Then the troupe all the week at The Kentucky has been somewhere to go, and many have taken advantage of it on the off-nights.

The celebration of the tenth anniversary of the Elks' organization on Wednesday evening was a social occasion of much interest, and was observed by the lodge with elaborate banquet, interesting program and much good cheer.

The Halloween festivities have added gaiety to the week, for though there were few formal observations, it was kept informally in various ways.

WHEN GHOSTS DO WALK.

The Halloween phantom party for the benefit of the First Christian church on Thursday night was quite a weird affair. The room was dark except for the faint light of the candles inside the pumpkins which decorated the walls, these were cut in imitation of skulls and had a peculiarly unguany aspect. The phantoms in sheets and pillow cases were well disguised and looked quite ghostly. Miss Aline Bagby made a capital fortune-teller, and read the future for all quite dramatically. There were comical shadow pictures given, also, and various amusements and Halloween superstitions were practiced during the evening. It was a very pleasant occasion, and much fun was had out of it, especially the efforts made to penetrate disguises and recognize friends which was often quite baffling.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Emma Hinton to Mr. Morton Adcock was celebrated very quietly on Tuesday evening at the bride's home on North Eighth street. It was a very pretty wedding and characterized by a beautiful simplicity. Only the near relatives and friends of the young couple witnessed the ceremony which was impressively performed by Dr. G. W. Briggs of the Broadway Methodist church. The bride looked very charming in a dainty dress of white organdy.

A pleasant informal reception followed the ceremony, and delightful refreshments were served during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Adcock have many relatives in and around Paducah, and are very popular. They will reside in Arcadia.

A WEDDING AND RECEPTION.

Miss Mary E. Cove and Mr. Frederick W. Mooney of the city, were married in Paris, Tenn., on Wednesday. It was the culmination of an engagement known to the parents of both, but so planned to give their friends a surprise. The bride wore a pretty traveling gown of brown and blue with a hat to match, and looked very sweet. She is a very popular and attractive young lady, and has many friends in the city. The groom is a well known and popular young man.

A reception was given them on Wednesday evening at the residence of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mooney of North Sixth street. Quite a number of guests were present and the occasion was most enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. Mooney will make their home at 1012 Jefferson street.

DELPHIC CLUB MEETING.

The Delphic club held a most interesting meeting with Mrs. Mildred Davis on Tuesday morning. The discussion of poetry, its place and effect, and some phases of early German poetry, was much enjoyed. The quotations in answer to roll call were upon poetry. Mrs. Robert Becker Phillips, in a very able paper, gave an account of "Didactic Poetry, Satires, Fables and Tales in Germany, from the Tenth to the Fourteenth Centuries." Miss Lucile Robt on told the "Epic of Heinrich Heine" very entertainingly, and "The Heidenbuch—Fifteenth Century," was very interestingly discussed by Mrs. James A. Rudy.

Mrs. Alonzo R. Meyers is the club hostess for the month of November.

U. D. C. EUCRE PARTY.

The event of the coming week will be the eucere party given by the local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy on Thursday evening. It will be on a scale more extensive than anything ever planned and given in Paducah. The lower floor of the Campbell building, opposite the Palmer House will be used for the occasion, and there will be seventy-five or more tables arranged for the guests. Forty prizes will be given. These have all been presented by the merchants of the city, and are attractive and elegant gifts. In every way it promises to be a brilliant success, and will be a social function of special interest and pleasure.

A PLEASANT REUNION.

Miss Julia Smedley and brother, Mr. Walter Smedley, held a family reunion at their home on North Fifth street on Wednesday evening that was a most pleasant occasion. Some of the guests present formerly lived in Paducah and had not seen each other for years, and many interesting reminiscences of Paducah fifty years ago were told. A delightful supper was served, and eucere was played. A most enjoyable evening was spent. Among those present were: Mrs. M. L. Larson, of College Hill, Cincinnati; Mr. Edwin B. Teyman, of Indianapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Williams; Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Smedley, Mrs. Mary Oulley, Miss Anna Williamson and Miss Elizabeth Williamson.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED.

The marriage of Mr. W. V. Eaton, of the city and Miss Cora Carson Folias, of Bowling Green, Ky., is announced to take place on November 14, at the bride's home.

Mr. Eaton is a popular young lawyer who has made many friends in his two years' residence here. Miss Folias is the daughter of Mr. John G. Folias, one of Bowling Green's most prominent men, and is a very attractive young lady.

They will be at home in Paducah after November 18.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

At the pretty Graham home on West Broadway on Monday evening, Master George Dickon, the eldest son of Mrs. Charles E. Graham, entertained his young friends in honor of his twelfth birthday. It was a most enjoyable occasion, and from 8 to 11 the time passed most merrily. The young host did the honors of the occasion most gracefully, and received many good wishes. A delightful supper was served during the evening. Quite a number of guests were present.

ENTERTAINED AT TEA.

Mrs. Judge Murray of East Monroe street, entertained at tea on Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Mary Murrell of Louisville, Hon. Oscar Turner, of Louisville, and Mr. W. H. Mills of Cincinnati. It was a most pleasant occasion and a very delightful evening was spent.

OUR NEED OF BEAUTIFUL BUILDINGS.

We may learn in time that a city can not afford ugly architecture, any more than it can afford unsanitary conditions or inadequate transit facilities. It is not wise to underestimate the influence of material surroundings on our lives. Who has not felt the depressing effect of a mean and sordid environment, or the thrill of delight experienced on entering a public building or finding amid the artistic splendor of a scene like that of the "White City" at Chicago in 1893? Architectural beauty is one of the chief sources of the popularity and prosperity of such cities as Paris, Berlin, Venice and Vienna; it is worth millions to them, as their citizens and rulers are well aware.

Monuments and fountains, esplanades and embankments and arcades are there looked upon as a sound investment for the public funds. The experience of the Chicago and Omaha expositions proves that the same thing is true in this country. It is safe to say that nine-tenths of their visitors found the keenest pleasures and most vivid impressions to have come from the architecture of these fairs; it was this which drew and fascinated the crowds, far more than what was to be seen within the buildings.

AN INTERESTING RELIC.

Geo. Lassiter has a silver half dollar that he is rather proud of. It was during the war, when George was nothing but a boy, and lived in Calhoun county, Ky., with his parents that the coin came into his possession. General Grant had just captured Fort Henry, and was returning when he and his staff stopped at the Lassiter residence for dinner.

The General was covered with mud, and young George obtained permission to black his boots. After dinner the General looked at his boots and said, "Well, that's the finest job of blacking I've had done for some time," and tossed the boy a half dollar.

After the company's departure George's mother looked at the coin and saw it bore the date of 1855, the year he was born. That coin is in Mr. Lassiter's possession today. He has been offered ten dollars for it, but refuses to sell it at any price. And, by the way, George can tell some interesting stories of war days, of the times when the rivers and streams were discolored with blood and brother was warring against brother.—Metropolis Journal.

DRAMATIC NOTES.

"A Thoroughbred Tramp" is, like all other thoroughbreds, the real article.

The popular young actor, Howard Gould, is evidently making the success of his career in his tour in the New York Empire theatre success, "Brother Officers," under the direction of W. M. Wilkinson.

"Brother Officers" is the work of Leo Trevor, a captain in the English army, and his hand is shown in the correctness of uniform, equipment and military observance which is so woefully lacking in the great majority of plays of this character. Better than this, however, Mr. Trevor has the dramatic instinct in a marked degree, and having something that is worth the telling, gives it virile expression. Mr. Gould will appear in this city, probably, during the present season.

"A Thoroughbred Tramp" broke all records at the Bijou Theatre during the company's Chicago engagement.

After many extravagant successes at home and abroad, "The Belle of New York," with its merry lyrical jingles, its pretty girls and delightful ensembles will be seen at The Kentucky next Friday. This well known musical comedy is so well written and it possesses so many delightful features that one wishes to see it a second and third time. This no doubt is the reason for its remarkable success. At the end of last season it had accomplished a record of 2,000 performances, and it is safe to say that it will receive an enthusiastic reception upon its return to this city. It is so brimful of action; it moves with such spirit and dash that one never seems to tire of it. The company is again headed by Mr. Edward J. Connelly and Miss Beulah Dodge.

There have been lots of racing effects introduced on the stage, but "A Thoroughbred Tramp" introduces a new one—a race between a horse and a train. The horse gets away alive.

The Lexington Leader of Thursday says: "Milt G. Barlow, the famous 'old man' negro minstrel comedian, was in the hands of his friends from the time he landed in Lexington yesterday until he got out for Paris with Martin's Uncle Tom's Cabin show after the performance last night."

"Barlow is a native of Lexington, and it is always a pleasure for him to come here. He was born up stairs in the building opposite the Phoenix hotel, at the corner of Main and Limestone streets, just sixty years ago."

"He lived in Paris quite a while in his early days, and is a great favorite there, as well as nearly every other part of the United States. He looks as young today as he did twenty years ago, and says he is feeling fine."

"Barlow was a member of the famous minstrel four, 'Barlow, Wilson, Primrose and West,' from 1877 to 1882. He then starred under the minstrel firm name of Barlow and Wilson, while his other two partners were 'Primrose and West.' Now all partners have separated, and are going it alone. Primrose and West have shows of their own. George Wilson is on sabbath and Barlow will finish this season with the character of Uncle Tom, to go out next season with a play in a white face part."

With most theatre goes a tramp role is decidedly popular, but one seldom

A DAILY NUISANCE.

A SIMPLE REMEDY WHICH WILL INTEREST CATARRH SUFFERERS.

In its earlier stages catarrh is more of a nuisance than a menace to the general health, but sooner or later, the disease extends to the throat, bronchial tubes and even to the stomach and intestines.

Catarrh is essentially a disease of the mucous membrane, the local symptoms being a profuse discharge of mucus, stoppage of the nostrils, irritation in throat, causing coughing, sneezing, gagging and frequent clearing of the throat and head.

The usual treatment by local douches, snuffs, salves, etc., often gives temporary relief, but anything like a cure can only be obtained by a treatment which removes the catarrhal taint from the blood and the disappearance of the inflammation from the mucous surfaces.

A new remedy which meets these requirements and which so far has been remarkably successful in curing catarrh is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

These tablets act upon the blood and mucous membranes only. They can be hardly called a secret patent medicine as they are composed of such valuable remedies as Sanguinaria, Hydrastis, Eucalyptol and similar cleansing antiseptics which cure by eliminating from the blood and mucous surfaces the catarrhal poison.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are large, pleasant tasting lozenges taken internally, allowing them to dissolve slowly in the mouth, in this way they reach the throat, fauces and the entire alimentary canal.

If desired, they may also be dissolved in water and used as a douche, in addition to the internal use, but it is not at all necessary to use a douche; a few of them dissolved in the mouth daily will be sufficient. However, when there is much stoppage of the nose, a douche made from these tablets will give immediate relief, but the regular daily use internally of these tablets will cure the whole catarrhal trouble without resorting to the inconvenience of a douche.

Dr. Bement states "that the internal treatment for catarrh is rapidly taking the place of the old plan of douching, and local application and further says that probably the best and certainly the safest remedy at present on the market is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, as no secret is made of their composition and all the really efficient remedies for catarrh are contained in this tablet."

Druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at fifty cents for full sized package. Ask your druggist and if he is honest he will tell you there is no safer, more palatable, more efficient and more convenient remedy on the market.
